HIGH WATER IN THE COLORADO

The first high water of the spring flood in the Colorado River passed Topock early this week, the peak being quite high. The river is falling, but it is expected that there will be a great flood about the 20th of June, the late snows and heavy freezes of late spring retarding the melting of the snows in the mountains. Unusually heavy rains have been falling in the Rocky mountain region, which will take the snows off with a rush, the runoff probably reaching Topock late in June. The floods have been eating into the west bank of the river above Needles, but it is not thought that any great damage will result.

CASE DECISION

requiring a license fee or other method that may be found necessary.

The decision is one of the most complete ever handed down by a judicial tribunal of the state, and to our minds is conclusive. The judgment goes further and sustains the conviction of Smith, and orders that the judgment of the justice's court be enforced. The reason of the importance of this cause lies in the fact that the sheepmen of Utah annually drive into the county of Mohave fully 200,000 head of sheep and many cattle and horses to graze on the rich grasses of our northern strip. The new law became operative this year and our officers got busy. The first sheepmen to come under the purview of the law paid their license fee with little demur, but when Smith was tackled for the money he demurred and his arrest followed. There being no available justice of the peace in that part of Mohave County he was brought to Kingman, a distance of about 400 miles, where he was found guilty. His appeal to the supreme court of the state was summarily dismissed without hearing. The refusal of Smith to pay license fee resulted in other men who had given their check in payment to stop payment before the check was presented to the bank upon which it was drawn. These men will be summarily taken into custody unless they come through with the amount and the resulting costs. Incidentally it will make possible the collection of about $50,000 in license fees and a great deal of property tax.

YUCCA

Miss Mona Rudy is convalescing from a two weeks confinement with the measles.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bly and Mrs. Jeanette Dunlap spent last Sunday at Buena Vista Rancho.

The Janc family have the scarlet fever, so says Dr. Tilton who was in Yucca to see them last Sunday.

The roundups are still going on, and the coming calf crop is proving very gratifying to the cowmen.

A fire, a murderous assault upon a burro, and all the attendant excitement furnished Yucca folks no little entertainment Monday. No fatalities.

Jack Montgomery of the McCracken is busy perfecting a flying machine that is to mount into the ethereal blue without any gas. We are curious—but here's success.

Tony Hill recently purchased the Midget mine in Aubrey Peak District, from Mr. Doyle. He is working on it with a view to making it a producer in the near future.

Riley Johnson was in from Castanada Wells last Saturday. Mr. Johnson states the water there is not sufficient for more than 200 head of cattle and he has removed some to the Bill Williams below Castanado, where the water supply is available.

Will the doctor who put "quarantine" into effect in Yucca, kindly bring a dictionary to the parties so designated, and have a deputy sheriff stationed outside to enforce regulations? During the recent measles quarantine in town the marooned (?) party was our most conspicuous person on the street.
